Mission Work

Matthew 28: 18-20

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world, Amen."

When Jesus spoke to the disciples, as recorded in the book of Matthew, He was giving them a Mission Work to commence out in the world.

If we look at the word Mission, one of its definitions is 'a special assignment given to a person or group.' What more special assignment could be given than a command from Jesus to tell the world about Him.

We are not all evangelists, but we have all received gifts that we can use in helping to fulfill the Mission that Jesus gave to the disciples. As we try our best to do a small part of this in our life we have comfort in the knowledge that Jesus is always with us.

We should always pray for our Apostles, evangelists and members who are fulfilling this mission work to the nations of the world, that they are lead by the Holy Ghost, they are protected on their travels, and that their mission work may be blessed by God.

This is our opportunity to be part of this Mission Work as members of our Holy faith.

Jesus Appears to His Disciples

"The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe."
John 20: 25

Telling Others

Paul and Barnabas Tell About Jesus
—Acts 11, 13

Paul and Barnabas believed the things Jesus said. They traveled to many places so they could tell about Jesus. They went to many different cities, and many people learned about Jesus through what they said.

We can tell about Jesus, too. We don't need to travel to many cities—we can tell about Jesus right where we are! Use the code to complete the puzzle and find ways you can tell about Jesus.
